

What is backup withholding?

Funds from interest payments are withheld by the bank and paid directly to the IRS on behalf of the individual taxpayer in payment of a portion of their income tax. Backup withholding is required when the IRS has notified an individual that they are subject to it.